Smoke Detector Fail

This WHNT News 19 investigation revealed significant issues with smoke detectors. There are two types of smoke detectors; ionization detectors and photoelectric detectors. Unfortunately, ionization detectors are not very good at detecting the type fires that result in the most fatalities, smoldering fires. Our investigation demonstrated how an ionization detector fails to alert in a timely manner. It sounded between 30 minutes to an hour after a photoelectric detector has gone off. Several states and many municipalities around the country have banned ionization type detectors because of the flaws in the system. Tennessee currently has legislation that would require photoelectric alarms. Three thousand people die in fires every year nationwide. WHNT News 19 took action to protect families.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Fatal Attraction" (10:00-11:00p) - Joanne Witt, a 47-year old engineer in El Dorado Hills, California was stabbed to death while she was sleeping on Thursday, June 11, 2009. One month prior to her death Joanne found her 14-year old daughter Tylar Witt in a compromising situation with 19-year old Stephen Colver. Joanne was a single mother and along the way had lost control of Tylar, but exposing her daughter's relationship with Stephen would prove to be their last fight. Joanne tried to stop the relationship once she was aware of it, but the couple denied any wrongdoing. When Joanne discovered Tylar's diary detailing the sexual encounters between the couple, she went straight to authorities, and an investigation was opened. Prosecutor Lissette Suder, in conjunction with Stephen's defense attorney Dain Weiner and Tylar's lawyer Mark Ralphs, outlined the unfolding sequence of events. Tylar and Stephen were afraid of statutory rape charges and after Joanne was dead they decided to rent a hotel room for the night in San Francisco. Stephen and Tylar wrote suicide notes, and ate rat poison hoping to die together. When the rat poison didn't work they were on the run until local police officers turned them in. Tylar ended up turning on Stephen once prosecutors got involved and at his trial, she testified against him. In the end Stephen was sentenced to life in prison without parole, and Tylar pleaded guilty to 2nd degree murder, receiving 15 years to life. On screen text graphic: Tylar Witt is not eligible for parole until 2024; she will be 29 years old. Onscreen text graphic for the 07/03/12 rebroadcast: Tylar Witt is not eligible for parole until 2024. 07/07/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Killing Fields" - a report about a desolate strip of land between Houston and Galveston where over 30 young women and girls have disappeared or have been murdered, and a followup to "Killer in Friendswood" (OAD: 05/01/97), which detailed the disappearance and death of 12-year-old Laura Smither. With this weekend's release of a film entitled "The Texas Killing Fields", attention has been rekindled about some of the cases, including the story of Krystal Baker. In 1996, Baker, whose great-aunt was movie star Marilyn Monroe, disappeared from Texas City and was found two weeks later near the Louisiana border, beaten to death and sexually assaulted. In 1997, Laura Smither went out to jog and disappeared and her body was found weeks later. When another young woman disappeared, the Smithers joined the search, as did Tim Miller, whose daughter, Laura Miller, was kidnaped and murdered when she was sixteen. Laura was one of four young women murdered and dumped along a remote area that earned the name "the killing fields". Journalist Skip Hollandsworth chronicled the case for Texas Monthly, in which a brilliant scientist, Robert Abel, became a suspect, but police could never find a connection. Police detectives Brian Goetschius and Michael Land are investigating, but as Hollandsworth says, it's clear that it has been various men who have done different things to these women, not one serial killer. As the movie is released, there is the reality that many of these cases remain unsolved. The actors hope that the film will help make a difference. Just after the film wrapped, a big break came up in the Krystal Baker case: DNA was submitted to a nationwide computer data bank, and a Louisiana man, Kevin Edison Smith, arrested on a drug charge, came back as a match. He has been charged with murder and will go on trial in December. The Smithers don't have DNA evidence, but they believe they know who killed their daughter: William Reece, the prime suspect in another case. Motivated by his loss, Tim Miller founded the rescue group Equusearch, which over the years, has helped look for missing people and located scores of bodies. For now, the killings seem to have stopped: no new cases of murder have arisen. Included interviews with: journalist Skip Hollandsworth; screenwriter Don Ferrarone, actor Sam Worthington; investigators Brian Goetschius and Michael Land; Jeanie Baker, mother of victim Krystal Baker; Bob and Gay Smither, parents of victim Laura Smither; Tim Miller, father of victim Laura Miller. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

07/10/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Screenplay for Murder" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on Canadian filmmaker Mark Twitchell, whose obsession with the Showtime television series "Dexter" turned to reality and led to murder. His film, "House of Cards", was about a male serial killer who created a fake online profile as a woman, lured men from a dating website to his garage -- and then killed them. Police became interested in Twitchell when they were investigating a missing persons case, 38-year-old computer enthusiast John Altinger, and were led to the garage where he had just wrapped shooting his movie. A Facebook page where he compared himself to the serial killer "Dexter" and the discovery of a secret journal, which was essentially a blueprint for murder, allowed Edmonton police to eventually link Twitchell to the 2008 murder of Altinger and to the attempted murder of 33-year old Gilles Tetreault -- both of whom had answered an online dating ad. On Screen Text Graphics: The Crown has decided not to charge Mark Twitchell with the attempted murder of Gilles Tetreault at this time. Ironically, an independent film about this case is currently in production. On screen text graphic for the 07/10/12 rebroadcast: Crown prosecutors have decided not to charge Mark Twitchell with the attempted murder of Gilles Tetreault. In February 2012 Twitchell dropped his appeal. Includes interviews with: Gilles Tetreault, victim; Bill Clark, Edmonton Police homicide detective; Jess, Twitchell's ex-wife; Marisa Girhiny and Trevor Hossinger, who witnessed Gilles under attack; Gary Altinger, John's older brother; Jimmy Siokos, actor and screenwriter; Chris Heward, actor in "House of Cards"; Renee Waring, Twitchell's Facebook friend; Detective Mark Anstey; Avril Inglis and Lawrence Van Dyke, Edmonton Crown prosecutors. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Family Affair" - a report on the 2008 murders of Philip Heidt and his son Carey Heidt, the shooting of Philip's wife, Linda Heidt, and the secret extra-marital affair of Carey's wife Robin with his brother Craig Heidt, who has been convicted of the murders of his father and his brother. The Heidt family lived in the small town of Springfield Georgia. Philip Heidt, a real estate developer was married to Linda. They had three sons, Chris, Craig and Carey. Carey became his father's business partner and married Robin. They seemed the perfect Southern family -- but Robin Heidt had been having an affair with her brother-in-law Craig Heidt, the self-described black sheep of the family. She even told her husband about the affair. Carey was distraught, but no fool: he removed Robin from his life insurance policy. During one of their trysts, Philip hired a helicopter to track them down because he wanted hard evidence of their affair. Carey and Robin then separated; he went to stay with his parents. Then, on August 25, 2008, the crime occurred. Philip and Carey were fatally shot with a shotgun; Linda Heidt miraculously survived, turning her head at the moment of the shooting. With nothing taken from inside the house - money and jewelry untouched - investigators concluded the motive was murder. Detectives gave Robin the news: she says she immediately confronted Craig, who said he didn't do it. Police immediately zeroed in on Craig. Linda Heidt did not see the shooter, but is adamant that Craig didn't do it -- circumstantial evidence said otherwise. Four months after the murders, Craig moved in with Robin and her children was essentially living Carey's life. Nine months later Craig asked Robin to marry him. In May 2009, Craig Heidt was arrested for the murders. His mother and brother stood by him during the trial; Robin did not. He was found guilty. Family members insist he didn't get a fair trial. Epilogue: In November 2011, Robin married Bradley Cave, who had spent a year in mandatory drug rehabilitation. In December 2011, a lawyer for the Heidt children asked a court to remove them from Robin's care and let them live with Linda. The judge gave Linda immediate custody, ordered monies from the Heidt trust to be paid to Linda for care of the children. Robin was also to turn over the children's Social Security payments. She did not and a warrant was issued. She spent two days in jail right before Christmas. On screen text graphic: Craig Heidt is appealing his conviction. On screen text graphic for the 07/14/12 rebroadcast: In November 2011 Robin Heidt remarried and moved to Charleston, South Carolina with her new husband and her three children. The court ruled that both Robin Heidt Cave and Linda Heidt share joint custody of the children. Craig Heidt's appeal on his conviction will be heard by the Georgia Supreme Court in September. Interviewed: family members Robin Heidt, Linda Heidt, Chris Heidt; Michael Muldrew, prosecutor; Dr. James Downs, medical examiner; Jimmie McDuffie, sheriff, Effingham County, Georgia; Eugene Howard, agent in charge, Georgia Bureau of Investigations; Ed Myrick, sheriff's firearms instructor; James Dingledein, police officer; Dow Bonds, Craig Heidt's attorney. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

07/21/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “The Girl Who Knew Too Much” (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the 1992 murder of 19-year-old Mischelle Lawless, whose bloodied body was found in an abandoned car on a desolate strip of highway in Benton, Missouri. As Deputy Sheriff Rick Walter was working on the crime scene, a local man, Mark Abbott, reported that he had seen the young woman in her car, and also told investigators that he saw a white car driving near the crime scene. Police questioned Lawless’ boyfriend, Leon Lamb, but could find nothing to tie him to the crime, and he passed a polygraph. Four months into the investigation, investigators got a break: 17-year-old Joshua Kezer had been held briefly in the county jail on assault charges, where, according to several inmates, he confessed to killing Lawless. Then Mark Abbott identified Kezer from a photo lineup as the driver of the white car he had seen near the crime scene. Police then charged Kezer with first-degree murder. During the trial, a young woman, Chantelle Crider, identified Kezer as having been at a party where he had words with Mischelle. However, no DNA, fingerprints or murder weapon linked Kezer to the scene. Nevertheless, Kezer was convicted and sentenced to 60 years in prison. The case haunted Rick Walter and in 2005, now sheriff, he re-opened the case. Soon the foundation on which Kezer’s conviction was built began to crumble, as witnesses admitted to lying and evidence was questioned. Judge Richard Callahan agreed to review the case and was so disturbed by what he saw that instead of ordering a new trial, he declared Josh Kezer an innocent man. But someone killed Mischelle and high on the list of suspects is that local man, Mark Abbott, who was once a star witness for the prosecution. In fact, there are two Abbotts, Mark and his identical twin Matt. To this day, Walters is not sure which Abbott brother came in to report finding Mischelle, and two people in the office say that it was his brother Matt. Leon Lamb also remains a suspect. With the help of forensics experts at a “crime farm” in the Netherlands, who have examined DNA evidence, Walters hopes further investigation will allow him to bring the case to a grand jury. On screen text graphic update: Josh Kezer is suing former Sheriff Bill Ferrell for wrongful arrest. Onscreen text graphic update for 01/01/11: Josh Kezer sued Scott County and former Sheriff Bill Ferrell for wrongful arrest. They settled the case for several million dollars. On screen text graphic for the 07/21/12 rebroadcast: Josh Kezer sued Scott County and former Sheriff Bill Ferrell for wrongful arrest. They settled the case for several million dollars. Kezer donated $10,000 to the Scott County Sheriff’s Department to fund the continuing investigation of the Lawless murder. Interviewed: Sheriff Rick Walter; Joshua Kezer; Melissa Gaines, Mischelle’s best friend; Mark Abbott; Jason Lawless, Mischelle’s brother; Leon Lamb; Valerie Eubanks, Mischelle’s sister; Esther Lawless, Mischelle’s mother; Chantelle Crider; Brandon Caid, investigator; Dawn Pierce, host of the party; Jane Williams, church volunteer at the Missouri State Prison; Judge Richard Callahan; Ron Burton, friend of Mark Abbott; Richard and Selma Eikelenboom, Dutch forensics experts. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “My Mother’s Murder” - On the morning of June 5, 2005, Noura Jackson, a teenager, called the police to report that she had discovered the body of her mother, Jennifer Jackson, in their Memphis, Tennessee home. Jennifer, a 39-year-old divorced single parent, was a successful bond trader, who provided Noura with a generous lifestyle. Due to the brutality of her murder, police initially considered a possible link between Jennifer’s death and the unsolved shooting death of her estranged husband, Nazmi Hassanieh, seventeen months prior; they also focused on Jennifer’s ex-boyfriend, Mark Irvin, a minister, who had an alibi. Although there was a lack of physical evidence at the crime scene, Noura’s conflicting accounts of her activities in the hours before she called 911, a gap in her cell phone usage, and an early morning trip to Walgreen’s to purchase first aid supplies for a cut on her hand, caused police to focus on her as a suspect. While none of the DNA at the crime scene matched Noura’s, she was eventually charged with her mother’s murder. Four years later, at her trial, prosecutors alleged that the seemingly good relationship between mother and daughter was strained due to Jennifer’s criticism of Noura’s hard-partying lifestyle and charged that this was the motive for the crime. The jury found Noura guilty of second-degree murder -- she still maintains her innocence. Onscreen graphics: Noura Jackson was sentenced to 20 years in prison. She will be 39 years old when released -- the same age her mother was when she was murdered. Interviewed: Noura Jackson; family friends Susan Tobey, Renea McMillan, Ansley Larsson, Dana Frederick; Sergeant Tim Helldorfer with the Memphis Police Department; Memphis detectives Lieutenant Mark Miller and Sergeant W.D. Merritt; Sergeant Connie Justice, the first officer to interview Noura; Valerie Corder, Memphis Defense Attorney; Prosecutor Amy Weirich. Ernie's motive was financial gain: he was to receive over $2 million if his parents died. He was facing financial pressure from his gambling debts and the loan he was paying back to his parents for the condo he lived in with his wife and young son. During the course of the investigation, police discovered that Ernie was involved with various other women, and always spent lavishly. At the scene, police discovered an odd clue: bloody footprints intentionally left as part of a staged crime scene. Police questioned Ernie, but with no forensic evidence to tie him to the crime, they were unable to arrest him. Later, when new evidence came to light, Ernie had vanished. After a cross country spree of nearly one year, police, with the help of Ernie's wife, were able to apprehend and arrest him for the murder of his parents. His trial in January 2011, ended in a guilty verdict. On-screen text graphic: Ernie Scherer is serving two consecutive life sentences. - 08/11/12 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “The West Memphis 3 - Free” (10:00-11:00p) - a followup to “A Cry for Innocence” (OAD: 02/27/10), the story of three teenagers known as the “West Memphis Three” who were convicted of the brutal murders of three young boys in West Memphis, Arkansas, seventeen years ago. Damien Echols received the death penalty, while friends Jason Baldwin and Jesse Misskelly were sentenced to life in prison. As the case became well-known, musicians and actors came forward to lend their support, and an HBO documentary, “Paradise Lost”, and a book by Mara Leveritt entitled “Devil’s Knot”, detailed flaws in the case, and forensic scientists challenged results. The Arkansas Supreme Court ordered a different judge to examine all the evidence, old and new, and decide if their should be new trials. The only hitch: everyone will have to wait another year. Now, in a stunning turn of events, the three men were all released from prison last month, agreeing to a rarely used legal procedure, called the Alford Plea, in which a defendant proclaims innocence and yet pleads guilty. Included in this follow-up are interviews with Damien Echols and his wife, Lorri Davis; Jason Baldwin; attorney Stephen Braga. On-screen Text Graphic: As a condition of the plea, the West Memphis 3 had to agree not to sue the state of Arkansas. Updated on-screen text graphic for the 08/11/12 rebroadcast: Jason Baldwin is going to college. - 08/18/12 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “The Boy Next Door” - an updated report on the hunt for a serial killer suspected of murdering three young women from Los Angeles, California to Chicago, Illinois. In 2001, Los Angeles resident Ashley Ellerin was planning to attend a Grammy party with actor Ashton Kutcher. When Kutcher arrived at her home, she never answered the door; it turned out that she had been brutally stabbed to death the night before. Her friends directed the police to Michael Gargiulo, a former boxer and aspiring actor who was working as a repairman -- friends said that he was oddly fixated with her. In the course of the police investigation, the police learned Gargiulo was being investigated for another crime -- the unsolved murder of Tricia Paccaccio, who had lived in Gargiulo’s former Glenview, Illinois neighborhood. Due to lack of evidence, he had never been charged, and he left for California. Five years after the Ellerin murder, another woman, Maria Bruno, was found dead just steps away from the apartment where Gargiulo lived. In that case, detectives found a blue cotton booty, with a drop of Maria’s blood on the bottom. In 2008, a Santa Monica woman was attacked, but survived. Blood evidence and DNA (which had been filed in the National Database by Cook County Illinois authorities) led investigators to Michael Gargiulo, who was living just across the alley from where the woman was attacked. Police arrested Gargiulo and the investigation led to a connection to all of the cases involving the several young women. Gargiulo insists he is innocent. UPDATE: Since the original broadcast, two witnesses to statements made by Gargiulo that he killed a woman in Chicago have contacted 48 HOURS. They were put in touch with the proper authorities. Shortly thereafter, a Cook County Grand Jury indicted Michael Gargiulo for Tricia Paccaccio’s murder. On Screen Text Graphic: Michael Gargiulo is scheduled to stand trial at the end of the year for the murders of Ashley Ellerin and Maria Bruno. If convicted, he will face the death penalty. Updated on-screen text graphic for the 08/18/12 rebroadcast: Prosecutors are hoping to have Michael Gargiulo’s trial for the murders of Ashley Ellerin and Maria Bruno in court before the end of the year. He is now acting as his own attorney. If convicted, Michael Gargiulo will face the death penalty. Regardless of the outcome in Los Angeles, Chicago prosecutors intend to bring Gargiulo back to Illinois to stand trial for the murder of Tricia Paccaccio. Interviewed: Rick, Diane and Doug Paccaccio, Tricia’s father, mother and brother; Karen Jones, friend of Tricia’s; Ray Salihovich, Illinois police officer; Justin Peterson, Chris Duran and Jennifer Disisto, friends of Ashley Ellerin; Tom Small, Los Angeles Police Department homicide detective; Temple Brown, Los Angeles filmmaker; Scott Olsen, friend of Michael Gargiulo; Jack Reed and Mark Baldwin, Cook County sheriff’s detectives; Mark Lillienfeld, homicide detective with the Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department; Richard Lewis, Santa Monica Police Sergeant; Jack Blakey, head of cold case prosecutions for the Cook County state’s attorney. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

09/01/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Playing with Fire” (9:00-10:00p) - In the early morning hours of September 2, 2002, two young men were found executed in a burning Mercedes SUV in an upscale North Hollywood, California neighborhood. The victims were Michael Tardio, 35, a part-time model and doorman at The Garden of Eden – at the time Hollywood’s hottest nightclub – and his friend, 31-year-old Christopher Monson. What initially looked like a drug or gang-related murder, turned out to be something entirely different, but the crime scene left little forensic evidence to go on. Retired veteran Los Angeles Police Department Detective Bill Cox, who spent four years on the case learned that Tardio’s girlfriend was Sandy Bentley, who along with her twin sister, was a former live-in girlfriend of Hugh Hefner at the Playboy Mansion. She was also an ex-girlfriend of Mark Yagalla, a former Wall Street hedge fund manager who was convicted of running a multi-million dollar Ponzi scheme. During her relationship with Yagalla, he gave her more than $6 million worth of expensive gifts. When federal officials came after these gifts, Bentley secretly kept $1 million worth of jewels and furs she was legally required to forfeit. Police believe that Tardio and Monson were murdered when Tardio set up a deal to sell the jewelry to an unidentified buyer. When Bentley was questioned by police, she initially denied the fact that Tardio and Monson were selling the jewelry. When threatened with a possible jail sentence, she told them the truth. The strongest lead police had was a telephone number Tardio gave to Bentley for Michael Jacobs, a convicted felon who was seen with Tardio at the Garden of Eden. Police believe he was the middle man in the jewelry transaction and the only person who knows the identity of the intended buyer, known only as “Mister Big”. Jacobs has refused to give any information to the police or 48 HOURS. Authorities are hoping that viewers of this broadcast may provide a new lead that could help them in solving the case. Interviewed: Retired LAPD Detective Bill Cox; Andrew Blankstein of the Los Angeles Times; Izabella St. James, former girlfriend of Hugh Hefner; Mark Yagalla; Brian Bieber, Yagalla’s lawyer; Michelle Braun, Internet madam; Mike Degnan, FBI Special Agent; Attorney Eugene Licker; Linda Kim, jewelry collector and international weapons broker; Chris O’Connell, 48 HOURS investigative producer. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “A Family’s Honor” (10:00-11:00p) - In October of 2009, 20-year-old Noor Almaleki and Amal Khalaf, the mother of her boyfriend Marwan, walked out of a Peoria, Arizona DES office and were struck by an SUV driven by Noor’s father and Iraqi immigrant, Faleh Hassan Almaleki. Detective Chris Boughey suspected this to be an “honor killing”. Honor killing is a practice found in some cultures, that allows a father to kill his daughter if he believes she acted in a dishonorable or disrespectful way. Amal Khalaf survived; however, Noor died from her injuries. The Almaleki family had moved from Iraq to Arizona in the mid 1990's, and Faleh wanted his children to adhere to Iraqi traditions -- but Noor wanted to be a typical American girl. She had been brought back to Iraq to enter an arranged marriage when she was 17, but she left the marriage, returned to the United States, and eventually moved in with her boyfriend, Marwan Khalaf and his mother Amal. Noor’s parents made numerous verbal threats to her to return home, but she refused. Soon afterwards, her father struck her with his SUV. Faleh fled the country, but was later apprehended in London, and returned to the United States. He claimed that hitting the two women was an accident, but evidence of incriminating tire marks at the scene and the fact that the vehicle had no brake problems, seemed to indicate otherwise. However, these facts and other incriminating evidence were not enough to convince a jury that Noor’s father was guilty of first degree murder. Instead, the jury found Faleh guilty of the lesser charge of second-degree murder, meaning they did not agree the attack on Noor was premeditated, or an honor killing. Judge Roland Steinle sentenced Faleh to 34-and-a-half years in prison for killing Noor and gravely injuring Amal. On-Screen Graphics: While members of Noor’s family were questioned about the crime, no one other than her father was charged. Interviewed: Peoria, Arizona Police Detective Chris Boughey; CBS News Consultant Abigail Pesta; Adhi, Noor’s friend; Amal Khalaf, Noor’s boyfriend’s mother; Marwan Khalaf, Noor’s boyfriend; Nuha, Noor’s friend; Jasvinder Sanghera, founder, Karma Nirvana; Lina, Karma Nirvana caller; Laura Reckart, prosecutor; Elizabeth Mullins, defense attorney; Jeff Kirchler, defense attorney; Charles Cooper, witness; Shaneil Nakamoto, witness; Ali, Noor’s brother. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

09/08/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Shelley’s Last Breath” - an investigation into the 1999 scuba diving death of Shelley Tyre while on vacation on the Caribbean isle of Tortola. Police questioned her husband and dive partner David Swain about every detail of the dive; autopsy results were inconclusive. Shelley, a school principal who, in the early 1990s, had met and married David Swain, a divorced father of two, who ran a dive shop, was an adventurous woman who couldn’t care less about money. Her parents insisted on a pre-nuptial agreement and David Swain agreed he would receive no money if they divorced. With her death, he collected more than $600,000 from her estate. What her parents could not understand was Swain’s lack of emotion regarding Shelley’s death. He explained that he didn’t know had happened to Shelley during the dive. Although divers are supposed to swim in pairs, she was diving alone – he had gone elsewhere in the water. One year after her death, her parents hired an attorney and sent him and his team of experts to Tortola to investigate. After several months, they uncovered evidence which they believed proved David Swain was lying. 48 HOURS hired an underwater forensic expert to examine the evidence; he also concluded that it was much more than a diving accident. Her parents believed that Shelley’s decision to change jobs and take a substantial pay cut may have been the motive for murder. In 2006, they sued David Swain in civil court for wrongful death and won. Armed with this, the Tyres persuaded the authorities in Tortola to re-open the case: island prosecutors charged Swain with the murder of his wife. Ten years after Shelley’s death and after two years in a Tortola prison, the trial began. Certain information about David Swain became public during the trial – his father had been convicted of sexual abuse and sent to prison. His mother was bludgeoned to death by his brother, Richard. This information, along with testimony from his children and ex-wife was used to explain his behavior. In the end, David Swain was found guilty of murder and sentenced to life in prison. Update for this 01/21/12 rebroadcast: In September 2011, a three-judge panel overturned David Swain’s guilty verdict and he was released from prison. Updated on-screen graphics: In December, David Swain was arrested and charged with drunk driving. If convicted, he could face up to a year in prison. Swain has never paid the Tyre family the 3.5 million in damages from the 2006 wrongful death judgement. With interest, it’s now more than 8 million. Interviewed: David Swain; Jen Bloom and Jeremy Swain, David’s children; Richard and Lisa Tyre, Shelley’s parents; Don Badger, Shelley’s co-worker; John Langella, David’s friend and fellow scuba instructor; Sandy Wheeler, David’s ex-wife; Jeff Morgan, San Bernardino, California Sheriff’s Department; Keith Royle, dive boat captain; Bill Oliver, scuba gear designer; Neil Tassel and Tim Bradl, David’s defense attorneys; Jim Erickson, former Minneapolis assistant district attorney; Hayden St. Clair Douglas, local counsel working with David’s defense team. 48 HOURS SPECIAL PRESENTATION: "Vanity Fair: Hollywood Scandal" - a trio of investigations presented by staff writers of Vanity Fair magazine. 1) "Natalie Wood's Fatal Voyage" - Sam Kashner reports on the just re-opened case of actress Natalie Wood's death by drowning. This past weekend, after thirty years of rumors, the Los Angeles police department has re-opened the investigation. On Thanksgiving weekend in 1981, Natalie Wood, her husband Robert Wagner and Christopher Walken, her co-star in her latest film, were boating off of the coast of Catalina Island, on Wagner's vessel, the Splendour. Hours later, Wood's body was found floating in the Pacific Ocean. An investigation found no suggestion of foul play and it was ruled an accidental drowning. Now, based on new information, the police have re-opened the case. Interviewed are: Dennis Davern, the captain of the boat, who now admits that he lied to police about that night; Marti Rulli, a longtime friend of Davern's who has spent thirty years investigating the death; Mart Crowley, a close personal friend of Natalie Wood and Robert Wagner; Marilyn Wayne, who was on a nearby boat that night; Detective Duane Rasure, the original investigator on the case. In a written statement, the Wagner family says that it supports the investigation and trust the new information will be judged on the credibility of the source. Update for the 09/15/12 rebroadcast includes interviews with Steve Whitmore, spokesman for the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department; Suzanne Finstad, Natalie Wood's biographer; Los Angeles Sheriff's Department Lieutenant John Corina; and Ron Nelson, current owner of the Splendour. 2) "The Gangster and The Goddess" - Patricia Bosworth reports on the 1958 stabbing death of gangster Johnny Stompanato. Actress Lana Turner was a much-married, Academy Award-nominated actress who became involved with Stompanato, not knowing he was gangster Mickey Cohen's bodyguard. She tried to break off the relationship, and during an argument between the two at her Beverly Hills home, he was stabbed to death by her daughter Cheryl Crane. Crane was charged with murder, put on trial and the event was eventually ruled a justifiable homicide. Turner continued her career and died at age 75, though many still believe that Turner was the one who did the stabbing. Today, Cheryl Crane writes murder mysteries. Interviewed are: Cheryl Crane, Turner's daughter; Hollywood producer George Schlatter; John Ibrahim, the son of Johnny Stompanato, who doubts the official account of the crime; Eric Root, hairdresser to the stars, who says that Turner admitted to him that she did it. 3) "The Miranda Obsession" - Bryan Burrough reports on Miranda Grosvenor, a woman who for the past forty years was known to have befriended, over the telephone, dozens of Hollywood actors, directors, rock stars and politicians. Self-described as a leggy, beautiful blonde, she was viewed as something of a muse to many of these powerful men. Writer Buck Henry was one of those who became a friend, and after a time he realized she was misrepresenting herself. Music producer Richard Perry became obsessed with her and demanded to meet her. When he did, in a darkened hotel room in New York City, it was clear she was not the person she was presented herself to be. He soon ended the relationship. Whoever she was, she was not a stalker -- she just called people on the phone and developed ongoing telephone relationships. For the first time since Burrough located her twelve years ago, she agreed to an interview, with the understanding that her real name not be revealed. Featured are interviews with Buck Henry; Richard Perry; and Miranda Grosvenor. Special correspondents for this 48 HOURS SPECIAL PRESENTATION: Sam Kashner, author, "Natalie Wood's Fatal Voyage", Vanity Fair; Patricia Bosworth, author, "The Gangster and The Goddess", Vanity Fair; and Bryan Burrough, author, "The Miranda Obsession", Vanity Fair. Two days later, Mexican police found her body in a hotel sewer pit. Mexican authorities had Bruce’s passport, but he made his way back to California, using his license to re-enter the U.S. via Texas. Seven months later he was arrested for the murder, and was extradited to Mexico to face murder charges. He is currently being held in El Cerezo Correctional Facility, awaiting trial. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “My Dad’s Killer” - A followup to “Haunted” (OAD: 10/24/09), a report on the July 2002 murder of Mike Sisco and his fiancée Karen Harkness, shot to death in Karen’s Topeka, Kansas home. The police investigation ultimately focussed on Dana Chandler, Mike’s ex-wife and the mother of his two children, Hailey and Dustin. In 2009, after the appointment of a new District Attorney, the Harkness-Sisco case became a priority. Ten years after the murders and eight months after Dana Chandler’s arrest, the case went to trial. Lacking physical evidence, the prosecution hoped to convict Chandler with her own words, using jailhouse telephone calls recorded between Chandler and her sister; and her lack of an alibi, as she had told two different stories about her whereabouts on the night in question. Hailey and Dustin Sisco also became star witnesses against their mother, detailing her obsessions with their father and Karen Harkness. The case went to the jury and after approximately ninety minutes of deliberation, Dana Chandler was found guilty of two counts of first-degree murder. Five months after the verdict, six members of the Sisco and Harkness families see Dana Chandler one more time. She is given two life sentences, one for killing Mike Sisco and one for killing Karen Harkness. On-screen text graphic: Dana Chandler must serve 100 years before she can ask for parole. Interviewed: Hailey Sisco and Dustin Sisco, children of Dana Chandler and Mike Sisco; Jacquie Spradling, Chief Deputy District Attorney; Mark and Cathy Boots, Mike Sisco’s sister and her brother-in-law; Chad Taylor, District Attorney; Mark Bennett, Chandler’s attorney. - 09/16/12 "Food, Faith & Culture" - a report on the relationship between food and faith in three world religions: Judaism, Islam, and Sikhism. Topics include: (1) Kosher food laws stem from the Old Testament, or Torah, which lay out what observant Jews can and cannot eat. Opened in 2010 by the husband-and-wife team Moshe and Shana Wendel, Pardes serves kosher French food with a twist of Americana, a reflection of Chef Wendel's training at well-regarded French restaurants. (2) For practicing Muslims everywhere there is a mandate to eat halal, or pure foods ordained for mankind by Allah (God) as written in the Qu'ran and Hadith, the holy books of Islam. Yvonne Maffei is a food writer, cook, and founder of My Halal Kitchen.com, a site which allows her to share halal-friendly recipes and to help dispel myths around eating in accordance with Islamic law. (3) Within any Gurdwara or Sikh house of worship exists a langar, or common kitchen, where freshly prepared vegetarian food is served twice a day, seven days a week. All of the food is free and prepared by volunteers who chop, cook and serve the meals. This tradition dates back to the 15th century, when the religion was founded by Guru Nanak. At the langar at the Sikh Cultural Society in Queens, NY, the oldest and largest Gurdwara on the East Coast, Harpreet Singh Toor, one of the Gurdwara's leaders, discusses the tradition and how serving others is a central tenet of the faith.
